

Student Worksheet - The Changing Face of Women
Propaganda and Popular Opinion from WWII

Directions: Answer the following questions about the two depictions of Rosie the Riveter.

1. What do these two women have in common? Include physical characteristics and personality traits.

2. How do they differ?

3. Which image do you think became more popular with the public during the war? Why?

4. How do these images go against the usual portrayal of women during the era?

5. Which image do you like better? Why?

6. What was the purpose of these images?

7. Do these images fit the definition of propaganda? Why or why not?

8. How did women entering the workforce in WWII change modern society?